Formative assessment

1. Read the story sections 1-8. Then, match them to the pictures A-G.

1. Holmes and Watson go to The Alpha and talk to Mr. Windigate. He tells them that the geese came from Mr. Breckinridge. Holmes and Watson go to Mr. Breckinridge to know more.
2. Mr. Peterson finds a blue diamond inside the tall man's goose. A ticket on the goose says "For Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker".
- 3.
4. Someone steals the Countess of Morcar's blue diamond from her rooms in the Cosmopolitan Hotel.
5. Mr. Peterson goes to see Sherlock Holmes. Holmes puts an advertisement in the newspaper asking Henry Baker to come to Baker Street. Henry Baker tells Holmes that he got goose from Mr. Windigate at The Alpha.
6. The same evening someone stole the diamond, a tall man with a hat is walking with a goose over his shoulder. A young man hits the man and his hats falls off. The man runs away and leaves his hat and goose in the street. Mr. Peterson sees this and takes the hat and the goose.

7. James Ryder tells Holmes that he stole the diamond and put it in one of his sister's geese. Later he took a goose and opened it up, but it was the wrong goose and it didn't have a diamond in it. His sister, Mrs. Oakshott, sold the goose with the diamond to Mr. Breckinridge.

8. Holmes and Watson talk to the man from Mr. Breckinridge's shop. His name is James Ryder and he is the manager of the Cosmopolitan Hotel.

9. At Mr. Breckinridge's shop, Holmes and Watson see a man there. The man asks Mr. Breckinridge about the geese. He says one of the geese was his and he wants it.
