Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first. Use the words in capitals.

1 The biscuits are delicious. Do you mind if I have one more? ANOTHER

The biscuits are delicious. Do you mind if I _____ ?

2 The cottage isn't suitable for wheelchair users because the two bedrooms are located on the first floor. BOTH

The cottage isn't suitable for wheelchair users because _____ .

3 There's enough room at the dining table for all the family to eat together. WHOLE

There's enough room at the dining table _____ .

4 All the rooms in the hotel are unique and decorated in a different style. EACH _____ unique and decorated in a different style.

5 The buses from the city centre to the castle leave at twenty-minute intervals. EVERY

The buses from the city centre to the castle _____.

6 Some of our friends are here, but where is everybody else? OTHERS

Some of our friends are here, but where are _____?

7 The plans for the bridge were approved by every person on the committee. ALL _____ on the committee approved the plans for the bridge.

Complete the text with the words and phrases below. There are two extra options.

all of / another / both of / each / each of / every / other /others

Unique stays

Have you ever dreamed of staying in a treehouse in the middle of the Black Forest? Or perhaps you'd like to fall asleep looking up at the stars high in the Arctic Circle from the comfort of a warm bed? Now you can. We offer the chance for you to stay in 1 _____ these unique locations plus 2 _____ equally special places across Europe and beyond.

We have more than twenty unique holiday rentals; 3 _____ them has their own special charms. There are cosy cabins hidden deep in the woods, glass cubes with 360° wilderness views and even a hut that rotates to follow the sun. We have properties in almost 4 _____ type of landscape imaginable; forest, mountains, coast, Arctic wilderness, even desert. 5 _____ property sleeps two to six people and 6 _____ them offer luxury accommodation.

Visit our website to start your adventure

LIVEWORKSHEETS