

III/ FOCUS ON THE TRAILER

<https://youtu.be/A5GJLwWiYSg>

What is a trailer?

A trailer is a short video advertising a film, consisting of short parts taken from it. It gives an idea about the plot without revealing the end so that the audience would like to watch the entire film.

1/ Who says what? Write the name of the characters in front of their line(s).

Maria

.....

This is my first time in New York City. I want to be happy here. I want to make a life, a home.

.....

Are you ready? Tonight is about family.

Bernardo

.....

The first Gringo boy who smiles at you...

.....

I've never seen you before. You're not Puerto Rican.

Tony

.....

Is that okay?

.....

Do you want to start World War Three?

Anita

.....

You know, I wake up to everything I know either getting sold, or wrecked, or being taken over by people that I don't like.

.....

You keep away from him. As long as you're in my house.

Riff

.....

I'm a grownup now, Bernardo. I'm going to think for myself.

.....

Tony, we need you if we're going to war.

.....

Who are you? Friend or foe?

Valentina

.....

If you go with him, no one will ever forgive you!

.....

Life matters, even more than love.
