Match:

admit	because in addition	1.To agree to take something 2. To believe that something is true 3.To say yes to an offer or invitation encourage	1.To become a member of an organization 2. To get involved in an activity or journey with another person or group since (conjunction)	1.To request something, usually officially, especially in writing or by sending in a form 2. To spread or rub a substance such as cream or paint on a surface since (adverb)	From a definite past time until now.
join (v)	In the direction of, or closer to someone or something apply to	.To agree that something is true 2. To allow someone to enter a place. 3.To allow a person or country to join an organization accept	After a long time or some difficulty towards	to help someone to feel confident and able to do something several	some , an amount that is not exact but is fewer than many.
finally	used for adding an extra piece of information to what has already been said or written

LIVEWORKSHEETS