

I. Complete using the missing Phrasal Verbs.

You might use some of them more than once.

drag myself across look around hang about waiting for feel like hanging out go around comes to

I could _____ and burn my fingers
I've been _____ here, _____ something to start
You think I'm faultless to a T
My manner set impeccably
But underneath I am the same as you

I could dance all night like I'm a soul boy
But you know I'd rather _____ the dance floor
I _____ dancing on my own Where no one knows me and where I Can cause offense just by the way I look

And when it _____ blows
When I am numbering my foes
Just hope that you are on my side, my dear

But it's best to finish as we started With my face head-down, just staring at the brown Formica

It's safer not to _____ I can't hide my feelings from you now
There's too much love to _____ these days

You say I've got another face
That's not a fault of mine these days
I'm brutal, honest and afraid of you It's safer not to _____
There's no hiding my feelings from you now
There's too much love to _____ these days

You say I've got another face
That's not a fault of mine these days
I'm honest, brutal and afraid of you.

II. Pronounce the following phrases including phrasal verbs.

1. drag across the dance floor
2. it's safer not to look around
3. I could hang about
4. waiting for something
5. feel like dancing
6. hanging out
7. go around
8. when it comes to blows

III. Match each verb to their Synonym.

to go around to come to to hang out to feel like to look around to wait for to hang about to drag (something) across to be in the mood for something to observe, check or examine to crawl, pull oneself along to kill time, linger in, wait around to stand by, hold back to bypass, circulate to be about something to go out, to spend time out