Drag and Drop the correct answer.

1. To open a website directly, you need to type a URL into the Microsoft Internet Explorer address bar. URL means _____.

2. A URL usually begins with _____.

3. A website usually consists of a number of different web pages. To view these web pages, you need to click on a _____.

4. Hyperlink can be text or _____.

5. You can tell which text or images are hyperlinks when the mouse pointer changes from an _____ to a _____ icon.

forward

hyperlink

history

navigation

Uniform Resource Locator

arrow

www

images

hand

back

favourites

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. These _____ buttons can move back and forth between the web pages you have visited.

7. If you click the _____ button, you will go back to the last web page you visited.

8. To return the page, click on the _____ button.

9. You can see all of the web pages you have visited by viewing your _____.

10. To view your history, click on the _____ button, then click on the History tab.

LIVEWORKSHEETS