

Drag and Drop the correct answer.

1. To open a website directly, you need to type a URL into the Microsoft Internet Explorer address bar. URL means _____.

forward
hyperlink
history
navigation

2. A URL usually begins with _____.

Uniform
Resource Locator
arrow
www

3. A website usually consists of a number of different web pages. To view these web pages, you need to click on a _____.

images
hand
back favourites

4. Hyperlink can be text or _____.

5. You can tell which text or images are hyperlinks when the mouse pointer changes from an _____ to a _____ icon.

6. These _____ buttons can move back and forth between the web pages you have visited.
7. If you click the _____ button, you will go back to the last web page you visited.
8. To return the page, click on the _____ button.
9. You can see all of the web pages you have visited by viewing your _____.
10. To view your history, click on the _____ button, then click on the History tab.