

vocabulary

WEATHER

A) MATCH THE SENTENCES IN COLUMNS A AND B. PAY ATTENTION TO THE WORDS IN ITALICS.

A

- 1 We've got an unexpected heatwave in the middle of winter.
- 2 The temperature will drop to -15° C tomorrow.
- 3 Temperatures will rise to 40°C next week.
- 4 According to the forecast, it'll be wet all week.

B

- a It'll be boiling hot.
- b I hope it clears up next week.
- c It'll be freezing cold.
- d It has suddenly warmed up.

- | |
|---|
| 1 |
| 2 |
| 3 |
| 4 |

B) CHOOSE THE CORRECT ANSWER TO SHOW YOU UNDERSTAND THE MEANING OF THE UNDERLINED WORDS.

- 1 It's going to be mild on the day of the school trip, so you should wear thick socks / a thin shirt / a coat.
- 2 We've brought our umbrellas / sunglasses / hiking boots because there are going to be showers.
- 3 It was very chilly in the classroom because a window was open / the heating was on high / it was raining.
- 4 It'll cool down tomorrow, so you'll need to put the air-conditioning on / put the heating on / open the windows.
- 5 There aren't any seasons in Medellin, Colombia. It has a cold winter and hot summer / snow in the winter / the same weather all year.
- 6 There's a cold spell at the moment. We need to wear warm clothes / raincoats / tracksuits.