

Unlike

The word “unlike” means “different from”.

- We do NOT use it to compare or  contrast. We do NOT use it to say something is more or less than or better than something else.
- We use it to say that one thing is the opposite of something else.

Directions: Read the following sentences, and then answer the questions.

1. Unlike adults, babies have about 300 bones.

Do adults have 300 bones?

2. Unlike animal cells, plant cells have a cell wall.

Do animal cells have a cell wall?

Do plant cells have a cell wall?

3. Unlike me, Emir is good at algebraic equations.

Am I good at algebraic equations?

Is Emir?

4. Unlike me, my sister is a teenager.

Who is a teenager?

5. Unlike a village, a city is densely populated.

Is a village densely populated?

Is a city densely populated?