I've seen a „Go vegan“ photo show in our school.

I couldn't believe someone would collect so many and photos in one place. The pictures show dishes on plates. The food looks and it must all taste the same! I'm a vegan myself and I know there are a lot of-..... dishes. We all know Peter Kropacz, who is the author, is really, so what made him choose such photos for the exhibition?

Anyway, I don't recommend the exhibition to anybody who loves food or photography. Clearly, the show should be entitled „Don't go vegan“. Share your opinions, please.
