

Do the following exercises after watching the short film The Dollmaker.

I. According to the movie, answer the following questions.

- a) What makes the dollmaker's dolls so special?
- b) Why did the couple decide to get one of those dolls?
- c) What happens if they take the doll outside?
- d) What is the warning the dollmaker mentions?
- e) Why do you think the Father does not see the doll as a human?
- f) How did the story end?

II. Complete the following phrases by selecting the most suitable words according to the film.

- a) The dollmaker makes these dolls for families who have had an accident / lost a member.
- b) Do not spend more than one hourglass turn with it, or you'll start losing it / finding it.
- c) Nobody ever asked for their money / son back.
- d) Inside the doll is a vessel to channel that energy, but outside it is just a child / doll.
- e) My product is like a drug: fun to use but dangerous to consume / abuse.
- f) Of course if any of this happens, it is not my responsibility / doll.