

1. Which stage is considered full intelligence?
 - A. 3 - concrete operations
 - B. 2 - preoperational
 - C. 4 - formal operations
 - D. 1 - sensorimotor

2. What age is the sensorimotor stage?
 - A. Birth - 2
 - B. 1-3

3. During the sensorimotor stage we learn about the world around us through our
 - A. reflexes and movements
 - B. parents and family
 - C. senses and movements
 - D. senses and parents

4. To perceive the world only through our own point of view is called
 - A. egocentric
 - B. ethnocentricity
 - C. selfish
 - D. apathetic

5. The preoperational stage of thinking is characterized
 - A. daydreaming
 - B. symbolic thinking and intuitive thought
 - C. picturing things
 - D. egocentric views and thought patterns

6. What age is the concrete operational stage

- A. 7-11
- B. 4-11
- C. 11+
- D. 2-11

7. The concrete stage of thinking is characterized by

- A. the ability to sort and sequence.
- B. inductive reasoning
- C. All of the above.

8. At this age children begin to understand the concept of conservation - which is...

- A. Preserving the environment.
- B. When an object changes shape its mass or volume stays the same.
- C. saving things for later.

9. By the end of the concrete operational stage, children are able to see and understand someone else's perspective.

- A. False
- B. True

10. What age does the Formal Operational Stage begin?

- A. 8
- B. 4

- C. 12
- D. 16

11. The formal operations stage of thinking is characterized by...

- A. abstract thinking and understanding
- B. egocentrism
- C. empathy
- D. the teen years

12. Piaget believed in life long learning, but he believed the final stage of cognitive development started at the age of 12.

- A. False
- B. True