

Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence, using the word given. Do not change the word given. You must use between two and five words, including the word given.

- I'd love to go on holiday in March, but that's my busiest month. (wish)
I _____ go on holiday in March, but that's my busiest month.
- "Harry, I think you should cancel the concert if this rain continues," John said. (advised)
John _____ the concert if the rain continued.
- Not many students attended Dr Brown's lecture on politics. (number)
Only _____ students attended Dr Brown's lecture on politics.
- City residents are going to organize a campaign to reduce street noise. (be)
A campaign to reduce street noise _____ by city residents.
- After the accident Brenda was confused and did not recognize her brother. (so)
After the accident Brenda _____ did not recognize her brother.
- Peter hasn't seen his aunt Lucy for years. (saw)
It's _____ his aunt Lucy.
- The police said John had stolen the money. (accused)
The police _____ the money.
- Tania has a mobile phone because her son may need to contact her. (in case)
Tania has a mobile phone _____ to contact her.
- The reason Gloria didn't tell us the truth is that she was afraid of our reaction. (if)
Gloria would have told us the truth _____ afraid of our reaction.
- The students organized a show but they postponed it due to lack of funds. (put)
The students organized a show but they _____ of lack of funds.
- "Don't touch the cake, Toby. It's still hot," said Mrs. Smith. (not)
Mrs. Smith _____ the cake because it was still hot.
- Tamsin was the only student who hadn't done her homework. (apart)
All the students _____ done their homework.
- I expect Lucy was pleased that she'd won the prize. (been)
Lucy _____ that she'd won the prize.