

Past simple: regular and irregular

Look at the sentences:

I booked the flights yesterday.

When I was young, I watched TV every day.

Did you work yesterday? Yes, I did.

Did you watch the match last night? No, I didn't.

- We use the past simple to talk about finished actions in the past, either recently, or a long time in the past.
- We form the positive form of the past simple by adding -ed to the base form of regular verbs. It's the same form in all persons.
Work + ed → worked
- Some verbs have the following spelling variations:
 - Verbs which end in -e: add only -d;
Arrive → arrived use → used
 - Some verbs which end in consonant + vowel + consonant: double the final consonant and add -ed;
Stop → stopped travel → travelled
 - Verbs which end in consonant + -y: remove the -y and add -ied;
Study → studied tidy → tidied
 - Verbs which end in vowel + -y: add -ed.
Stay → stayed play → played
- Irregular verbs have their own forms (e.g.: go – went; do – did);
- To form the negative form, we use did not/didn't + base form in all persons;
Didn't/did not play
- To form the interrogative form, we use did + subject + base form + ? in all persons.;
Did you play tennis yesterday? Yes, I did. No, I didn't.

POSITIVE AND NEGATIVE

VISIT (regular)	GO (irregular)
I/you/she/we/you/they VISITED	I/you/he/we/you/they WENT
I/you/she/we/you/they DIDN'T VISIT	I/you/he/we/you/they DIDN'T GO

QUESTIONS AND SHORT ANSWERS

DID I/you/he/we/you/they VISIT/GO?	DID I/you/he/we/you/they VISIT/GO?
Yes, I/you/he/we/you/they VISIT/GO DID	No, I/you/he/we/you/they DID NOT/DIDN'T VISIT/GO

Past time expressions

To indicate when something happened in the past, we use past time expressions:

- With ago: three minutes, two hours, five days, two weeks, ten years + AGO
I called Sally two days ago.
- We can also use:
Yesterday + morning/afternoon/evening → He came to my house yesterday afternoon.
Last + night/Sunday/weekend/week/month/year → I went to the cinema last night.
