

Complete with the given words:

The Internet

get – connected - download - sell

The Internet is a large system of computers _____ together around the world. People can use the Internet to buy or _____ things, to share or find information and communicate with each other by email or in chat rooms. You can also _____ games, pictures, DVDs, etc. from the Internet. But you have to be careful when you use it because you can _____ a virus.

What is a virus?

know – enters – destroy - stops

A virus is a program that _____ your computer and _____ it from working normally. A virus can _____ all your computer programs and it can delete information. Sometimes you can even get strange messages on your screen and then you _____ something's wrong.

What can you do?

appear – protect – check – buy - needs

When you're ill, you have to see a doctor. When your computer gets a virus, it _____ an anti-virus program. You can _____ one as a CD-ROM but you don't have to. If you like, you can download one for free from special websites. Anti-virus programs _____ all the information you download, so you can surf the Net safely. But if you want to _____ your computer from viruses, you have to update your anti-virus program often. New viruses _____ all the time!