

1. Fill in the correct relative pronouns or adverbs.

1. Rita, _____ lives on the 20th floor, is afraid of heights.
2. Diana, _____ mum is a nurse, is afraid of needles.
3. It was after that plane crash last month _____ he started to fear flying.
4. Paul, _____ dad treats people with phobias, is my friend.
5. She had catoptrophobia, _____ is the fear of mirrors, as a child.
6. This is the clinic _____ he goes for treatment for his phobia.
7. Do you know the reason _____ Tom didn't come to work?

2. Fill in the correct relative pronouns or adverbs.

Arachnophobia, 8 _____ is the fear of spiders, is quite common. People 9 _____ suffer from this phobia experience panic attacks 10 _____ they see spiders.

Their heart rate goes up; they feel dizzy and start to shake. This phobia also interferes with their everyday lives. Arachnophobes check for webs 11 _____ they enter a room. They are afraid to open wardrobes, get into the shower and even put on their shoes, places 12 _____ spiders love to hide. Luckily, however, there is treatment. Sufferers can slowly confront their fear through pictures. Today, there are even video games with animated spiders 13 _____ can help cure the phobia!

