

Name _____

Date _____

In the sentences below there is a word or phrase in green. Replace that word or phrase by one of the words in the following list:

corpse

sanctuary

extraordinary

prudent

expedite

together

cortege

hypocrite

illegal

prostrate

majority

automatic

suicide

besides

queue

epidemic

1. Because the machine was working by itself, the operator controlled it just by pressing buttons. _____
2. He is such a pretender of being what he is not that all his friends dislike and avoid him. _____
3. In order to speed up the completion of the project, the workers offered to work over-time. _____
4. Smuggling of goods into the country is an unlawful practice. _____
5. The funeral procession proceeded slowly and solemnly to the cemetery. _____

6. The man's dead body was found partly decomposed on the bank of the river. _____

7. Having got the greater part of the votes cast, she was declared winner of the elections. _____

8. In addition to being quite lazy in class, he is also rude and talkative. _____

9. If you think that taking of your life by your own hands is the solution to your problems, then you are quite wrong. _____

10. Sir Garfield Sobers had talent so out of the ordinary that he became one of the greatest players in the history of cricket. _____

11. Graeme Hall Swamp, in Barbados, is a place of shelter for some migratory birds. _____

12. During the television broadcast the Minister of Health advised residents to socially distance themselves and wear masks to avoid an outbreak of diseases. _____

13. The lost travellers huddled all in one group to protect themselves against the biting Artic winds. _____

14. There was a long line of persons waited to be tested at Queen's Park. _____

15. The murder victim was found lying face downward in the deserted back street. _____