

UNIT 9: NON-COUNT NOUNS FOR ABSTRACT IDEAS.

1. Complete the following statements using the correct option.

- A. Both the employees have left work/ workers early today.
- B. We gave the newlyweds some good news/new early this afternoon.
- C. Education/ the education in schools has changed a lot in the last decade.
- D. The newspaper has criticised the politics/ politics new rules.
- E. Poverty/ A poverty has become troublesome in the growth of children.
- F. Physiotherapy is very effective in the improvement of our health/ healths.
- G. The graduated newly graduated teachers need to have a lot of patience/ patiences.

2. Read each of the definitions and match them with the social and political belief.

- A. Strongly opposed to political or social change.
- B. Supporting changes in political, social, or religious systems that respect extreme and that most people consider reasonable or sensible.
- C. Supporting complete political or social change.
- D. Preferring to continue to do things as they have been done in the past rather than risking changes.

3. Read the following statements and tick on the statements that are incorrect.

- A. The political information on the election.
- B. The hostess advices were related to the old policy.
- C. What advice can you give the president?
- D. The new candidates promise a lot of progresses.
- E. The patience is a teacher priority.
- F. Making peace takes a lot of work and a long time.

UNIT 9: VERBS FOLLOWED BY OBJECTS AND INFINITIVES.

1. Complete the following statements questions with the correct option.

- A. The channel news can't wait _____ the good news on the hurricane.
- B. The tv series has caused _____ to feel confused on the plot.
- C. Our teacher always encourages _____ every night.
- D. The author of the book told _____ patient for the new book.
- E. A lot of people refuse _____ the new censorship law on movies and tv programmes.
- F. Can't we convince _____ taxes on property.
- G. The hotel invited _____ and enjoy the new attractions.

2. Read the statements and choose the correct controversial issue or phrase.

- A. Young adults are responsible enough to think and decide about their future.
- B. Even though the law says they are mature enough, some people still need to grow a lot.
- C. it a terrible habit and against the law to smoke inside public and close spaces.
- D. In current times, tv programs and even books have become too violent and descriptive for some religions or cultures.
- E. At the age of 18, people have to show their patriotism and responsibility to their country.

3. Write 2 examples of a controversial issue.
