Comparison and Superlative of Adjectives: Heads Up

A. Complete the sentences with the adjectives in brackets:

1. Do you always have to choose _____ (expensive) shoes in the store?
2. Sue is 1.75 meters tall. She's even _____ (tall) her mother.
3. The Sahara Desert is one of _____ (magnificent מדהים) places on earth.
4. Did you hear Linda's story? It's _____ (strange) story I've ever heard.
5. I'm not happy with my new bed. My old one was _____ (comfortable) the new one.
6. Everything's is going wrong. This is _____ (bad) day I've had in long time.
7. I had a wonderful birthday. It was _____ (good) birthday I've ever had.
8. In summer, the days are _____ (long) in winter.

B. Circle the correct form of the adjective to complete the sentence.

1. Rihanna is one of more famous than / the most famous singers in the world.
2. The earthquake was stronger than / the strongest the earthquake in 2003.
3. The queen of England is richer than / the richest woman in England.
4. Sam is already as tall as / the tallest his father.
5. This bed is more comfortable / the most comfortable in the store.
6. The elephant is larger than / the largest land animal.
7. The coffee is better than / the best the coffee you bought last time.
8. Football is more popular than / the most popular basketball in Israel.

LIVEWORKSHEETS