

Eugene Cernan was  / the last man on the Moon.

Everybody remembers their  / the first job.

/ the first, check your bags.  / the second go through immigration.

When is  / the next Yankees game?

I wash my face  / the first. Then, I put on my make-up.

If you want to lose weight,  / the first thing you should do is join a gym.  / the next thing you have to do is be careful of what you eat.

John won  / the first place at the science fair.

Linda won  / the first prize in the spelling bee.

/ the second prize is not enough for some people.

This is  / the second prize that I've won today.

Let me finish my homework  $\emptyset$  / the first, and then we can go out.

Winning  $\emptyset$  / the first prize at the Razzies is not something most directors welcome.

Bill lives on  $\emptyset$  / the eighth floor.

$\emptyset$  / the first buy a kite.  $\emptyset$  / the next, wait for a windy day.

The only bad thing about winning  $\emptyset$  / the honorable mention is that you don't get a prize.

You're going to the store? That's  $\emptyset$  / the fourth time you've gone today!

You should be happy.  $\emptyset$  / the third prize is great! You did very well.

Many children give their teacher an apple on  $\emptyset$  / the first day of class.

You are supposed to eat your dinner  $\emptyset$  / the first and your dessert  $\emptyset$  / the last.

I plan to travel around the world next / the next year.

Jill bought a lottery ticket. Next / the next next week she had 20 million dollars.

Gina started studying English the last / last month.

The last / last Halloween I went trick-or-treating was 15 years ago.

I dressed up as a clown the last / last Halloween.

Michael and Linda got married in 1970. They had a son next / the next year.

Mark isn't going to be at school next / the next week.

Laura went on vacation in January. next / the next month she went on another.