You can be anything

by Teri Hopkins

... See you can be 1 but you must 2
So never give up, REACH for the sky.
You could be a fire fighter, and save someone's life,
Putting great big fires out, morning till night.
You could be a police officer patrolling the roads,
Keeping the world safe from the bad boys and girls,
You could be a scientist making potions and pills,
Finding new medicines that help mend the ill.

See it really doesn't matter whatever you 3
As long as you're happy you never will 4
But don't look at me to decide what you do,
The only one making that choice will be ...
YOU!

3 Word study Suffix -er

The -er ending in the job-words in the table is called a suffix. Some job-words come from the verb: for example, teacher comes from teach. Copy the table into your notebook and then write the verbs.

| Job       | Verb  |
|-----------|-------|
| teacher   | teach |
| presenter |       |
| writer    |       |
| builder   |       |
| reporter  |       |
