

SENTENCE COMPLETION

Jacinta thinks that sometimes film and cinema are better than the written word because film can be (1) _____ in terms of time. Sometimes descriptions in books can go on for (2) _____ and pages.

For Jacinta, the main problem with film is that it cannot replace the (4) _____. Jacinta says it is possible to use (5) _____ from the page to tell the story but you can't do this with the narrator unless you use lots of (6) _____.

Vanity Fair tells the story of Becky Sharp and her desire to (7) _____.

Becky is a terrible person. In the book the narrator observes and comments on what's (8) _____.

Jacinta admits that the film looked (9) _____ because of the fabulous scenes and breath-taking costumes. However, the overall effect was that the film was empty because the (10) _____ was missing.

