

After, before, when time clause in the future tense

A clause is a dependent sentence. It has subject + verb. After / before / when + a clause is a time clause. In the future tense, the verb form in a time clause is always in simple present. For example:

Time clause verb in present simple form	Main sentence verb: will/be going to + verb
1) After I finish my homework,  I will watch TV. After he finishes his homework,  He will watch TV.
2) Before I cook dinner,  I will have talk to my mother. Before she cooks dinner,  she will talk to her mother.
3) When I have money,  I will buy a computer. When he has money,  he will buy a computer.

Select the correct answer.

1. When he _____ ready to go, he will call me. is / will be	2. When I _____ home, I will have a sleep. get/ will get
3. Before she _____ to sleep, she will brush her tooth. will go/ go / goes	4. Before I _____ to bed, I will wash my face. will go/ go
5. After they _____ lunch, they will go shopping. will finish / finish	6. After the rain _____, we will go to the park. will stop / stop / stops
7. When we _____ at the airport, I will let you know. will arrive / arrive	8. After she _____ class, she will pick up her children. will finish / finishes / finish

Write your sentences:

1) When
2) Before
3) After	