

Focus 3. Unit 3. Phrasal verbs

Phrasal verbs

1 Complete the sentences with the verbs in the box.

break	put	pick	turn	walk	drop
set	bring	head	keep	pull

- After driving for four hours, we decided to pull over for a rest.
- I wasn't expecting Matt to _____ up at our house on Saturday. I wish he'd called first.
- I can _____ you off at the train station on my way to work.
- My car is in poor condition, so I hope it doesn't _____ down during our trip.
- My hiking companion is so fast that it's difficult to _____ up with her!
- We plan to _____ off on our journey at 6 a.m. on Sunday.
- It is not easy to _____ children up to be decent people when they have so many outside influences.
- Sara wants us to _____ her up at the airport when she arrives on Saturday.
- We were surprised when Tim decided to _____ away from his job to travel the world.
- When you reach 15th Avenue, _____ for the big church, then turn right on Park Street.

Phrasal verbs

1 Complete the sentences with the verbs in the box.

break	put	pick	turn	walk	drop
set	head	keep	get	pull

- After driving for four hours, we decided to pull over for a rest.
- We decided to _____ off the train at a tiny station in the countryside.
- We were afraid the car would _____ down, so we stopped at a service station for repairs.
- Janet chose to _____ away from her highly-paid job to become a tour guide.
- We can _____ you up for two nights, but then we'll need the spare room for my brother.
- I'm afraid I can't _____ you up at the station. Can you get a taxi instead?
- Can you _____ me off at the art museum on your way to work?
- The weather was so hot that we decided to _____ for the coast, where it was cooler.
- I dislike it when friends _____ up at my door without calling first.
- If we _____ off on our trip early in the morning, there won't be much traffic.

2 Choose one word, A, B or C to complete both sentences.

- I pulled B and stopped the car so I could safely talk on the phone.
Just be patient. I'm sure the storm will be B soon.
A in B over C out
- I hope we don't run _____ of money before the end of our holidays! I'd like to try _____ that new type of snowboard and see how it feels.
A out B on C away
- This sofa turns _____ a very comfortable bed when you fold it down. Go _____ the station on the north side and I'll be waiting for you inside.
A up B down C into
- I don't want to hold you _____ when you're in such a hurry. It's difficult to put _____ a tent when you don't have all of the parts.
A up B out C off
- I've seen enough of this place. Let's carry _____ with our tour. Don't put your bag _____ the floor – someone might trip over it.
A for B up C on
- You can't put _____ making a decision forever, so just make up your mind! We should get _____ the train at the next station.
A off B away C up

2 Choose one word, A, B or C to complete both sentences.

- I pulled B and stopped the car so I could safely talk on the phone.
Just be patient. I'm sure the storm will be B soon.
A in B over C out
- If we put _____ our tent too close to the water, it might flood. Hotel prices have gone _____ a lot since last year. I can't find a place I can afford.
A out B up C away
- By the time we got to London, we had almost run _____ of money so we got our parents to send us some. Do you want to go _____ for a meal at a restaurant?
A down B on C out
- After resting for a couple of hours, we decided to carry _____ with our bike tour. If your feet hurt, we can sit _____ this bench for a while.
A in B on C out
- This sofa turns _____ a very comfortable bed when you fold it down. Go _____ the station on the north side and I'll be waiting for you inside.
A up B down C into
- I'm sorry to hold you _____, but I need to send an email before we leave. With her back injury, she had trouble picking her phone _____ from the floor.
A in B down C up