Our Historical Objects
Ancient Period of Nepal

A. Fill in the blanks with the correct answers: [8 x 0.5 = 4]

1. All the events that happened in the past is known as _____.
2. _____ are writing on durable materials like stone and copper.
3. Stone inscriptions are also known as _____.
4. Copper inscriptions are also known as _____.
5. Dharahara was demolished by the earthquake that struck Nepal on _____.
6. The early inscriptions are from the _____ period and date from the fifth to the ninth centuries.
7. Historical objects should be preserved for the _____.
8. Inscription is writing on _____ material.

B. Fill in the blanks with the correct answers: [12 x 0.5 = 6]

1. The last dynasty to rule over Nepal was _____.
2. The first King of the Kirata Dynasty was _____.
3. The dynasty which ruled over Nepal for the longest period was _____.
4. At Devapattan, Kailashkut Bhawan was built by _____.
5. Golden Period in the history of Nepal – _____.
6. The name of the coins minted by King Mandev is _____.
7. The Indian Emperor who visited Lumbini and erected a stone pillar – _____.
8. Gopal Dynasty ruled over Nepal for – _____ years.
9. Who cut the gorge at Chovar to make Kathmandu valley livable? _____.
10. The Tibetan King who married Bhrikuti – _____.
11. The seventh Kirata King – _____.
12. Lichchhavi Dynasty rule over Nepal for _____ years.

LIVEWORKSHEETS