Yesterday John finished school earlier than usual because one of his teachers was ill.

"Great," he said to himself. "I'll have some time to play on the computer before my parents come home." When he was outside his house, he looked for his house key in his schoolbag, but he couldn't find it. He took all his books out of the bag and looked for the key again. The key wasn't in his bag. "What can I do now?" John asked himself. It was 12:30 and his parents were going to come home at 2 o'clock. John was afraid to stay outside his house alone and decided to knock on his neighbour's door.

"Hello, John," said Beth, his neighbour. "You look worried. What's the problem?" John told Beth about the key and asked her if he could stay in her house until his parents came home. "Sure, no problem," said Beth. "You can go to the study room and do some of your homework. I'll call your parents and tell them you're here." John thanked Beth and went into the study room. He felt unhappy, but he did his Physics homework.

At 2 o'clock, his parents arrived and John went home. When John went into the kitchen, he saw his house key on the table. "I forgot to put it in my bag," John said to himself. After lunch, he went to his room and continued doing his homework. At 4:30, his mum came into his room. "Your cousin, Peter, wants to come and play with you for a while. Is it O.K. with you?" asked his mum. "Yes, I finished all my homework," said John happily.

Dear Mark,

Sorry, I didn't write to you earlier. I'm very busy this year. All the teachers give us a lot of homework and I also do a lot of activities after school.

Let me tell you something about my daily programme. School finishes at 2 o'clock every day. I try to do all my homework by 6 o'clock so I can do all the other activities I have. On Monday and Wednesday, I go jogging for an hour. At 6:30 every Tuesday I have a guitar lesson. Now I'm learning classical guitar, but my teacher says that next year I can start lessons for electric guitar. I'm really looking forward to it. On Tuesday, I do German from 8 to 10 o'clock. You see, I'm thinking of studying German at the university so I must learn the language very well. I'm also in a swimming team and at 7 o'clock every Friday, I go to a swimming pool to practise. I'm a beginner, but I hope I'll soon become a good swimmer. Thursday evening is free so I have some time to play computer games or watch TV. Now as for the weekend, I don't do any extra activities. I try to finish any homework that I have on Saturday morning so I can go for a walk with my friends in the afternoon.

What about you? Have you also got a busy programme this year? If you're free next Sunday evening, would you like us to go to the cinema?

Send me an email when you can.
