The Apple Pie

One Saturday, Lily asked her mother if they could bake an apple pie. "Yes", said her mother, but we will need some apples."

"I will go next door to Grandma's farm and pick some from the tree," said Lily. She grabbed her basket and ran to Grandma's. Lily picked two red apples and two green apples and put them in her basket. On the way home, Lily saw a horse, a cow, and a pig in Grandma's field. "Would you like an apple?" Lily asked. She gave each animal an apple.

When Lily got home, her mother looked in the basket and said, "One apple? We can't make a pie with one apple." Lily laughed, grabbed her basket and said, I'll be right back!"
