Name: _____

Class: _____

Activity 1 – Unit 3
Ninth level
Parcial 3

Developments in industry and science

1. What was Industrial development closely associated with?
   a. A series of essential changes in transportation
   b. A series of essential changes in communication
   c. A series of essential changes in services

2. Choose the means of transport that first appeared and changed how people traveled during the 18th and 19th centuries.
   a. Trolley
   b. Steam navigation
   c. Railroad
   d. Car

3. Why were the new means of transportation important?
   a. To travel more
   b. To integrate the national and international market
   c. To join people

4. What was the new source of energy that replaced coal and gas?
   a. Petrol
   b. Steam
   c. Electricity

5. Choose three inventions of the late 19th century and early 20th century
   a. Railroad
   b. Telephone
   c. Steam navigation
   d. Silent film
   e. Airplane

LIVEWORKSHEETS

6. Choose the characteristics that describe the bourgeoisie
   a. It was formed by successful bankers, merchants, professionals, and State employees.
   b. They were politically aligned with socialism.
   c. They believed in progress, science, reasoning.
   d. They were the workers in the industries.
   e. They wanted the State not to interfere in individual activities.

7. Choose the characteristics that describe the workers.
   a. They are also known as the proletariat.
   b. They were the owners of the industries
   c. They claimed improvements in working conditions, especially the reduction of working hours.
   d. They had safe working conditions

The world in the 19th century: imperialism

8. What was imperialism?
   a. It was an expansionist phenomenon where the advanced capitalist countries dominated the continents of Asia and Africa politically, economically, and militarily.
   b. It was a political event where the advanced socialist countries dominated the continents of Asia and Africa politically, economically, and militarily.
   c. It was an expansionist phenomenon where the advanced capitalist countries dominated the continents of Asia, Africa, and America politically, economically, and militarily.

9. Circle three economic motivations of imperialism.
   a. Provision of food at high prices.
   b. Obtaining raw materials for their growing industries.
   c. Provision of food at low prices.
   d. Obtaining products to buy.
   e. New markets to place their production.

10. Identify the two types of colonization of Great Britain
   a. English resided in the new lands, with the intention of making them produce by themselves.
   b. English people occupied the land to live there.
   c. English people colonized Asia and Africa to become an Empire.
   d. English people occupied their colonies solely to extract their wealth.

LIVEWORKSHEETS