

Reading and writing

- 1 Look at Toby's school timetable and read the sentences.
Write yes if the sentence is correct and no if the sentence is not correct.

	Mon	Tues	Wed	Thurs	Fri
08:30–09:30	maths	French	English	music	science
09:30–10:30	history	science	history	ICT	English
10:30–11:30	science	maths	science	French	history
11:30–12:30	French	lunch	ICT	maths	lunch
12:30–01:00	lunch	English	lunch	lunch	PE
01:00–02:00	English	history	music	English	maths
02:00–03:00	music	PE	maths	science	French

It's ten o'clock on Wednesday ...

- Toby isn't doing English. yes
- He always has lunch at 12.30. ____
 - He did PE yesterday. ____
 - He's doing history now. ____
 - He did PE two days ago. ____
 - He isn't doing science now. ____
 - At twelve o'clock yesterday, he was having lunch. ____
 - He does maths every day. ____
 - He doesn't study music. ____

- 2 Lucy is on holiday at the moment and she is writing a blog.
Choose the correct letter A, B or C to complete the sentences.

- I'm B with my cousins in Australia.
A stay B staying C stayed
- I'm sitting by their swimming pool ____.
A every day B twice C right now
 - My cousins ____ here for three years.
A live B are living C have lived
 - The weather is warm, so people often ____ outside.
A eat B are eating C have eaten
 - At the moment, my uncle ____ breakfast on the barbecue.
A makes B is making C has made
 - We've ____ some amazing things.
A do B did C done
 - I haven't seen a kangaroo ____.
A yet B just C already
 - It's a very big country but not many people ____ here.
A live B are living C have lived
 - Australia is great. ____ to go home!
A I don't want B I'm not wanting C I haven't wanted