

GREEN REVOLUTION

1) Who is known as the father of Green Revolution?

2) In the year India was on the brink of massive famine

3) state was selected by the government to try new crop.

4) In India green revolution was introduced by

Match the causes in the column A with their effects in column B

A

Growth in irrigation

B

Tap water had high concentration of Nickel and Selenium

Use of chemical fertilizers and pesticides

Annual increase in wheat production

Cash driven agriculture

Drop in the water table

Green Revolution

Destroyed traditional farming