BULDIN FOR THE BEST WORLD .....

LISTEN then choose the correct option (write the letter in the space)

Where did the idea of building for a better world come from?

☐ It is an evolution from his interest in green architecture.

☐ It originated in Ireland where the first solar house was built.

☐ It came from a group of students at Yale University.

☐ It came from a NASA theory when designing a solar house.

What is the difference between green architecture and Mr Zicari's idea of architecture?

☐ His architecture takes care of the materials we build with and green architecture does not.

☐ Green architecture is continuously improving and his architecture never changes.

☐ His architecture is more popular than green architecture.

☐ Green architecture cares for the environment andhis architecture tries to improve it.

What is the most important part of a project for Mr Zicari?

☐ The things that are thrown away.

☐ The person's well being.

☐ The time needed for construction.

☐ The location of the buildings.

What did Mr Zicariworry about when he started the project?

☐ He was concerned about people who put the environment in danger on purpose.

☐ He was only worried about the soil and the water .

☐ He wanted to give something back to the environment.

☐ He wanted to sell all the houses in the development.

Which of these sentences is NOT correct?

☐ People living in the buildings find them comfortable.

☐ All the buildings in the project are complete.

☐ Mr. Zicari thinks the project is a big success.

☐ The financial crisis does not seem to have affected the whole project.

Which of these things about green architecture is NOT mentioned in the text?

☐ Green roofs.

☐ Green façades

☐ Permeable pavements

☐ Green infrastructures

Which are the most important things in the 20/20 Park Project?

☐ Quality and beauty.

☐ Beauty and energy.

☐ Business and quality.

☐ Biodiversity and clean energy.

What is Mr Zicari's ultimate goal?

☐ To earn a lot of money.

☐ To build for rich people.

☐ To try to changethe world a little bit.