The picture      two young women, probably a customer and a shop assistant. They are in the clothes shop because in the I can see dresses and tops. They are all different colors. The shop assistant is holding up a      dress and the other woman is it. She is smiling so it looks as if she is enjoying herself. Both women are      or early twenties. They've got long hair. They are also      and slim. I both of them are pretty dynamic and outgoing but the customer comes across as shy. She is wearing a      dress. It definitely      her long straight hair.
