

GRAMMAR

1 Complete the sentences with still, yet, already or just.

- Petra has _____ left. She walked out of the house ten seconds ago.
- I don't want to see the film because I've _____ seen it. I saw it a year ago.
- We're _____ waiting for our coffees. We've been here forty minutes.
- Have you finished the washing up _____ ?
- I _____ haven't heard from Jo. I don't know where she is.
- Amy has _____ had lunch. She ate an hour ago.
- We haven't played the match _____ .
- Peter's _____ walked into the room. Here he is now.

/ 8

2 Rewrite the statements in reported speech.

- Joe: 'Susie is at work.'
Joe said that Susie _____ .
- Mark: 'Carl has broken his leg.'
Mark told me that Carl _____ .
- Susan: 'I'm surfing the internet.'
Susan said she _____ .
- Jamie: 'I didn't have time to do my homework.'
Jamie told me that he _____ .
- Melanie: 'My grandmother will be 60 years old on Saturday.'
Melanie said that her grandmother _____ .
- Peggy: 'Penny helped with the shopping.'
Peggy told me that Penny _____ .

/ 12

VOCABULARY

3 Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

Words can be used twice.

back off up away in off through on out

- I was talking to Andy on the phone, and he got angry and hung _____ .
- Could you put me _____ to the finance department, please?
- I've been put _____ hold. I'm having to wait.
- I'll call you _____ in five minutes. I'm busy right now.
- We got cut _____ because the phone line failed.
- I'm afraid Tom's _____ of the office. He'll be back in a minute.
- Emma's _____ on holiday. Can I help?
- Mr Jones is _____ a meeting. He can't come to the phone.
- Joe is _____ sick. He's not at work.
- Is Paul _____ ? Or is he still in bed?

/ 10

4 Complete the sentences with the correct past form of the verbs in the box.

crash hack steal grab hit kick

- A thief _____ my bag and ran off. I lost all my money.
- Someone _____ into my bank account online and took my money.
- Burglars _____ all my jewellery while I was away from home.
- The police _____ the criminal's door down, and went in to arrest him.
- Somebody _____ into my car because they weren't watching the road.
- A man _____ me really hard in the face. I don't know why, but I was badly hurt.

/ 6

/ 50