

LOOK AND ANSWER

Italy

EUROPE

FERRARI CARS ARE:

- 1- BLUE
- 2- RED
- 3- YELLOW

Some of the finest cars, such as this Ferrari, are designed in Italy.

Venice is an island city built on lagoons and crisscrossed with canals, making gondolas a popular way to get around.

WHAT'S THAT?

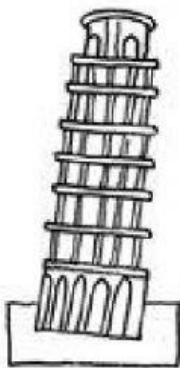

A _____

THE COLISEUM IS IN:

- 1- VENICE
- 2- FLORENCE
- 3- ROME

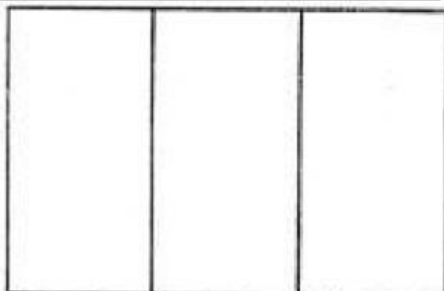

JULIUS CAESAR WAS:

- 1- A KING
- 2- AN EMPEROR
- 3- A PRESIDENT

Tourist sites such as the Leaning Tower of Pisa, built in 1360, attract many sight-seers.

WRITE THE CORRECT COLORS

Italian Flag

The ancient Romans were skillful engineers that built many surviving structures such as the Coliseum, which dates from A.D. 80 and once hosted gladiator battles.

SICILY

Italy is the world's leading wine maker. This Chianti is in a fiasco, a traditional round bottle wrapped in a wicker basket.

Fast Facts

Two thousand years ago, the Roman Empire dominated the Mediterranean region and western Europe as far north as Britain. The ancient Roman influence still lives on in the form of laws, engineering, and language—Latin forms the root of many modern tongues.

CAPITAL: Rome

AREA: 116,306 square miles

POPULATION: 58,057,477

LANGUAGE: Italian

CURRENCY: Euro

MAIN EXPORTS: engineering products, textiles, production machinery, motor vehicles, transport equipment, chemicals, food, beverages, tobacco