Clever Fish

One day, a fisher man would fishing to a river as usual. He throw his net into the river. And he just sat waiting there for fish to get in. So that, he could sell a lot of fish in the market and get some good money out of it. After some time his net moved in the water. Thinking that, he must got a lot of fish in the net.He actually took out the net out of water.

But then he saw just one tiny little fish in that net. He grabbed hold of that fish, but then suddenly the fish started talking to him. Tiny little fish said to the fisher man, oh! fisher man, please please leave me. Otherwise I will die, I will die out of water. But fisher man did not give any attention to the request of the fish.

But then again, the tiny little fish said to the fisher man, oh! fisher man, I will tell you something which is a huge help. If you leave me back in water, I will tell all my friends about you. And I will bring them to the bank of river. So that, when you come next time you will have much more fish.

Fisher man thought to himself wow, that is not a bad deal at all. He was thinking.If I let go one tiny little fish today, tomorrow I will get a lot of fish, because this tiny little fish will bring all his friends to me. Believing the word of this tiny little fish, fisher man let go this tiny little fish into the river again.

The tiny little fish was really happy and it swam away happily into the river, never to come back. Poor fisher man, he came next day expecting that there will be a lot of fish, that tiny little fish would bring. But the tiny little fish was very clever. And because of his cleverness he saved his life from the fisher man.

Moral of the story:-

You have to be really clever to save your life from such challenging moments.
