

Choose the correct nondefining relative clause (who, whose, which)

1. Greta Garbo, _____ was born in Sweden, moved to America in 1925.
2. Football, _____ first started in Britain, is now popular in many countries.
3. Darwin, _____ ideas changed our view of the world, travelled to a lot of countries when he was young.
4. Margaret Thatcher, _____ was the Prime Minister of Britain for 11 years, studied science at university.
5. Bill Clinton, _____ wife is a brilliant lawyer, became President of the USA in 1993.

Rewrite the sentence add the nondefining relative clause. Don't forget the commas.

1. Michelangelo is one of Italy's greatest artists.
(who lived until he was 90)
2. The Nile is the longest river in Africa.
(which runs through several countries)
3. Gandhi became India's nationalist leader.
(who was born in 1869)
4. Elephants live to a great age.
(which are found in Africa and India)
5. Madonna is a famous American singer.
(whose parents were born in Italy)