

Name:

The Red Stranger Circle

The Red Stanger Circle is the circle where we put people who are strangers. There is very little talking, trusting and touching with people in this circle.

There are 3 types of strangers.

1. Community helpers.
2. Health workers.
3. Total strangers.

Print the 3 types of strangers in the spaces below.

1.

2.

3.

Select the pictures of people who are strangers:

police officer

dad

doctor

total stranger

Community Helpers

Community helpers are people who are in our Red Stranger Circle. Most community helpers have a uniform or name tag. The uniform helps tell people that they are people who work in our communities.

Select the pictures of community helpers who are wearing a uniform:

 firefighter	 man	 doctor	 teacher
 Girl	 Police officer	 Store clerk	 woman

Spell the words 2 times.

uniform _____

name tag _____

hats _____

badges _____

shirts _____

Health Workers

Select the pictures of health workers and print them in the spaces below:

Nurse

teacher

doctor

dentist

Police officer

Store clerk

1.

2.

3.

Print the words two times.

doctor _____

nurse _____

dentist _____

health _____

Count the letters in each word.

doctor = ____

nurse = ____

dentist = ____

health = ____

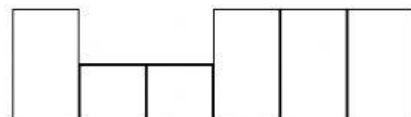

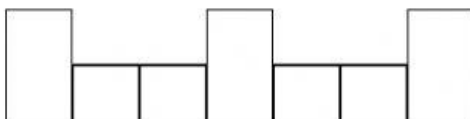

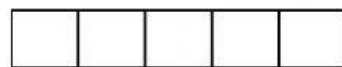

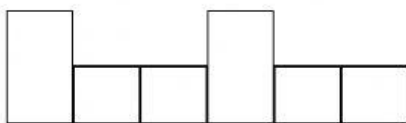

Fill in the words that fit into the boxes.

doctor

nurse

dentist

health

Total Strangers

A total stranger is someone who we have never seen before. We have no interactions with total strangers. These people belong in the Red Stranger Circle. We see stranger's everyday of our lives. The grocery store or the public library are places where you will see a total stranger. We have no business talking to them and they have no business talking to us. We do not touch strangers and they do not touch us.

Circle the correct answer.

A total stranger is someone who we have _____seen before.

We have no business talking to total strangers? Yes No

Total strangers can hug me? Yes No

Select the pictures of where you would see a total stranger.

Grocery Store

Your kitchen

Public Library

