

Name:

Life Skills: Occasional Chores - changing Light Bulb

Draw a line to the picture of the man cleaning the windows.

Draw a line to the picture of the man changing the lightbulb.

Draw a line to the picture of the man replacing the batteries in a smoke alarm.

Draw a line to the picture of the step ladder.

Draw a line to the picture of the stool.

Draw a line to the picture of the light bulb.

A step ladder is needed to change a light bulb.

Click the matching picture of the step ladder.

Click to the word that matches the picture.

stool

step ladder

A stool is needed to change a light bulb.

Click the matching picture of the stool

Click to the word that matches the picture.

stool

step ladder

A new bulb is needed to change a burnt out lightbulb.

Point to the
matching picture
of the new bulb.

Point to the word
that matches the picture.

step ladder

light bulb

Click the pictures of people changing light bulbs.

When a light bulb is burnt out, it is time to replace it with a new light bulb.

Click the picture of the light bulb being replaced.

Changing a light bulb is an example of a chore that needs to be done when needed. Point to the matching picture of the man changing a light bulb.

Homework Activity - click ✓ when done

Watch the video of Mr. Liolis changing a light bulb in a light fixture. ✓

Watch the video of Mr. Liolis changing a light bulb in a lamp. ✓

When was the last time a light bulb needed to be changed at your home?

Find the light bulb in the following places:

A lamp ✓

The ceiling ✓

The stove ✓

The fridge ✓

The dryer ✓