

Manage your mental health

Everyone deserves to be in good mental health. Mental health is a balance and it requires the ability to manage stress and achieve one's potential. Stress is normal, but too much can increase the risk of mental health problems.

We can manage stress with small improvements in...

Word choices:

nutrition

exercise

sleep

coping skills