A NEW PAIR OF SKI

Betty likes skiing very much.

This afternoon she wants to go skiing, she has got a new pair of skis.

Betty is skiing and at the end of the ski slope she meets her friend Ellen.

– Hi Ellen! How are you today?

– I'm fine, but I'm a little sad because I haven't got a pair of skis, and I love skiing...

– Wait a moment Ellen... I've got an idea...

Betty goes home, she takes her old pair of skis and returns to Ellen.

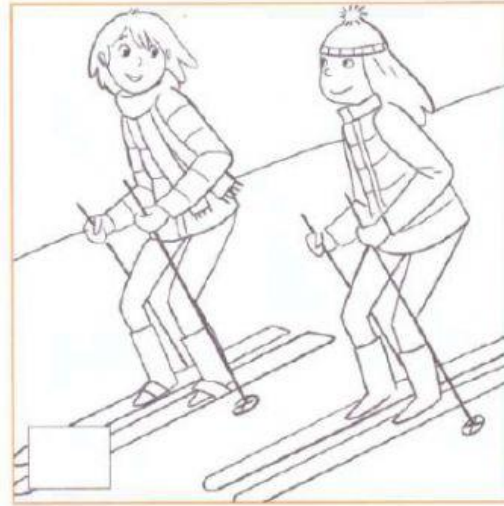

– Here you are. You can use my old pair of skis. I don't need them anymore.

Betty and Ellen go skiing together and they are both happy now!

Remember: when you can... help your friends!
