

ACROSS

4. The result of an action.
9. A mixture of gases that surround the planet.
10. A region of land where precipitation drains into a river or lake.
12. When water in the air cools down and forms droplets.
15. To use something up.
16. How much something can hold.
18. The way something is divided.

DOWN

1. Found in lakes and rivers, it's water than contains no salt.
2. Not use a resource in a wasteful way.
3. Things that fall from the clouds like rain, snow, sleet or hail.
5. When liquid changes into a gas or steam.
6. Being able to use something.
7. When you don't have enough of something.
8. The process in which Earth's water is constantly being recycled.
11. When something becomes yours.
13. Means to have access.
14. When there isn't too much of something.
17. Water that starts off as rain or snow that goes into the ocean.