Group: 2º Semester "F"
Class Activity

Activity 1.

Context.

You are an exchange student without full command of English, it is Monday, and when you arrive at the house where you will stay, you find the following post-it on the door.

"Hello, we will be out of town for a week, please take the money from the top drawer of the cupboard and stock the food that you need, we usually buy at Billy's store, he does not speak or understand Spanish but he says will serve you with pleasure.

See you on Sunday. Happy Thanksgiving Day.

The Johnsons.

P.S. Please buy food for snowflake, (the cat).

Thanks again."

Class activity 1

Make a list of the foods, fruits and vegetables that you will include in the pantry for the week.

You can include snacks or unhealthy foods but without abusing them.

Be sure to write the amounts you require of each food, fruit, vegetable and/or meat you require.

The teacher will pretend to be Billy.
