

Parts of Speech Focus: Nouns

A NOUN is a person, place, thing, or idea.

OBSERVE IT!

Identify nouns in the picture using one color. Make inferences and observations using a different color.

Insert text here

IDENTIFY IT!

Determine whether the underlined words in each sentence are nouns. Circle the word in green if it is a noun. Cross it out in red if it is not a noun.

BONUS: Circle more nouns found in the sentences.

The man unfolded the plans to take a closer look. Jake raised his arm to point out the mistake they had made while building the structure. Holding her iPad, the woman took notes. Building a house this deep in the forest was different than anything they'd ever done before.

WRITE IT!

Fill in the blanks with nouns that complete the paragraph.

Clara had never built a tree house before. In January, her Insert text here promised they would build a tree house together during summer vacation, and she could hardly wait. Insert text here spent months selecting the perfect Insert text here. It needed to have just the right amount of shade and the branches had to be perfect for building. Dad found plans online, they ordered their building Insert text here, and on the first day of summer vacation, they finally started their tree house!