READING

MR. AND MRS. DICARLO

Mr. and Mrs. DiCarlo live in an old Italian neighborhood in New York City. They speak a little English, but usually they speak Italian.

They read the Italian newspaper. They listen to Italian radio programs. They shop at the Italian grocery store around the corner from their apartment building. And every day they visit their friends and neighbors and talk about life back in "the old country."

- Where do Mr and Mrs DiCarlo live?
- Where does Joe live?
- What language do Mr and Mrs DiCarlo speak?
- What language does Joe speak?
- What do Mr and Mrs DiCarlo read?
- What does Joe read?
- What do Mr and Mrs DiCarlo listen to?
- What does Joe listen to?
- Where do Mr and Mrs DiCarlo shop?
- Where does Joe shop?

Mr. and Mrs. DiCarlo are upset about their son, Joe. He lives in a small suburb outside the city. He speaks a little Italian, but usually he speaks English. He reads American newspapers. He listens to American radio programs. He shops at big suburban supermarkets and shopping malls. And when he visits his friends and neighbors, he always speaks English.

In fact, Joe speaks Italian only when he calls his parents on the telephone, or when he visits them every weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. DiCarlo are sad because their son speaks so little Italian. They're afraid he's forgetting his language, his culture, and his country.

When does Joe speak Italian?

Why are Mr and Mrs DiCarlo sad?
