Name.....No.....M.....

Aesop's Fables

Directions : Choose the correct name of Aesop's fables for each moral.

The Swan and the owl	The man and his two sweethearts	The monkey and the fisherman	The milkmaid and her pail
The dog in the manger	The shepherd's boy and the wolf	The little fox	The cock and the Jewel
The lion and the mouse	The donkey and the grasshopper	The ass and his shadow	The hare and the tortoise
Fox and bunch of grapes	The bear & the bees	The sick stag	The two frogs
The hares & the frogs	The oak and the reeds	The ants and the grasshopper	Belling the cat

1..... Never leave your friends in difficulty.

2..... There is no believing a liar, even when he speaks the truth.

3..... It is one thing to say that something should be done, but quite a different matter to do it.

4..... Better to yield when it is folly to resist, than to resist stubbornly and be destroyed.

5..... Slow and steady wins the race.

6..... Evil companions bring more hurt than profit

7..... Those who pretend to be what they are not, sooner or later, fine themselves in deep water.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

8..... In quarreling about the shadow, we often lose the substance

9..... Using emotions to do anything never has a positive effect on yourself

10..... A bad workman always blames his tools

11..... Where on may live, another may starve

12..... No act of kind ness, no matter how small, is ever wasted

13..... Be prepared and don't be careless

14..... People have more experience is good teacher

15..... However unfortunate we may think we are there is always someone worse off themselves.

16..... The ignorant despise what is precious only because they cannot understand it

17..... Those who seek to please everybody please nobody

18..... A bully always prevents others from getting into trouble

19..... Do not count your chickens before they are hatched

20..... A willful man will have his way to his own hurt.

LIVEWORKSHEETS