

LIVEWORKSHEETS

ACROSS

4. Things that fall from the clouds like rain, snow, sleet or hail.
6. The way something is divided.
7. A region of land where precipitation drains into a river or lake.
11. When liquid changes into a gas or steam.
12. When something becomes yours.
14. A mixture of gases that surround the planet.
15. Being able to use something.
17. The process in which Earth's water is constantly being recycled.
18. To use something up.

DOWN

1. Means to have access.
2. Not use a resource in a wasteful way.
3. When water in the air cools down and forms droplets.
5. The result of an action.
8. Water that starts off as rain or snow that goes into the ocean.
9. Found in lakes and rivers, it's water than contains no salt.
10. When you don't have enough of something.
13. How much something can hold.
16. When there isn't too much of something.

LIVEWORKSHEETS