US SCHOOLS

A school is a place where students learn from a teacher and from each other. Let's take a look at some schools in the USA.

George is seventeen years old. He's from Helena, Montana. "I'm a student at Helena High School. My school is big. In this picture I'm in the gym and I'm ready to play basketball. Gym is my favorite class."

This is Jennifer and Lisa. They're from Montgomery, Alabama. They are sixteen years old. "Our school is small. We have many different classes. In this photo we're in the science lab. We're in the middle of a science experiment. Science is our favorite class. This is our science teacher, Mr. Gomez."

Nancy is nineteen years old. She's from Providence, Rhode Island. She's a college student. Her school is huge. In this photo she's in the computer lab. There are 20 computers in the lab. "Computers are my passion. That's why computer science is my favorite class."
