Examples of Sequencing words for story:

Below are examples of how to include SQ in your writing (where needed):

Passages organized by sequence, have signal words. Can you spot them?

It's important to know what to do if your clothes ever catch on fire. First, you need to stop what you're doing. Next, you need to drop to the ground. Then you need to roll around until the flames have been smothered. Finally, you should seek medical attention.

First, I wake up.
Then, I take a shower and get dressed.
After that, I have breakfast.
Next, I brush my teeth.
Finally, I go to work

Little Red Riding Hood

Little Red Riding Hood lived in a wood with her mother. One day Little Red Riding Hood went to visit her granny. She had a nice cake in her basket. On her way Little Red Riding Hood met a wolf. 'Hello!' said the wolf. 'Where are you going? I'm going to see my grandmother. She lives in a house behind those trees.' The wolf ran to Granny's house and ate Granny up. He got into Granny's bed. A little later, Little Red Riding Hood reached the house. She looked at the wolf. 'Granny, what big eyes you have!' 'All the better to see you with!' said the wolf. 'Granny, what big ears you have!' 'All the better to hear you with!' said the wolf. 'Granny, what a big nose you have!' 'All the better to smell you with!' said the wolf. 'Granny, what big teeth you have!' 'All the better to eat you with!' shouted the wolf. A woodcutter was in the wood. He heard a loud scream and ran to the house. The woodcutter hit the wolf over the head. The wolf opened his mouth wide and shouted and Granny jumped out. The wolf ran away and Little Red Riding Hood never saw the wolf again.

END

Patty the Pirate has always dreamed of finding gold. Yesterday, she found a treasure map. After reading the map, she jumped in her ship and set sail for the land marked with a big "X". Later that day, when she reached land she began to dig. Suddenly, her shovel hit something hard. It was a large wooden chest. When she threw open the lid it was filled with sand. In the end, Patty was disappointed she didn't find gold but happy she had an adventure.

Remember to use
Sequence words in your sentences
where needed only.
