

Reported questions

Rewrite the sentences to correct the mistakes.

1. We wanted to see how are they dealing with the lockdown.
2. They were asked to answer what are they usually doing to fight boredom.
3. We asked students what were they doing to fight boredom.
4. Students answered some questions about how was the lockdown going.
5. The first question they were asked was how much time do they spend on social networks or chatting?
6. The teacher asked how were the students feeling.
7. The first question that teenagers have been asked is what have they missed the most during isolation.
8. Students were interviewed to see how is their quarantine going like.

9. Students were asked in which way had their eating habits changed.

10. We wanted to know how has teenagers' life changed with the COVID-19.

11. The aim of this report is to reveal how much time spend teenagers on social networks during lockdown.

12. One of the last questions was about how often do they do exercise or practise sports.

13. The teacher asked students how were they feeling at that moment.

14. The second question was what did they miss the most during confinement.