

LESSON: 21
TOPIC: COMPARISON OF ADJECTIVES (FORMS)
TASK: 1 of 1

1. Choose the correct answer from the given:

1 Their pizza is definitely ... in our city.	a) most tasty	b) more tastier	c) the tastiest	d) the most tasty
2 This is ... method of delivery.	a) rapider	b) a lot rapider	c) by far rapidest	d) the most rapid
3 The Nile River is longer and ... than the Thames.	a) more famous	b) famouser	c) more famouser	d) much famous
4 That was ... memorable movie I've seen in a long time.	a) the last	b) the least	c) the one	d) the next
5 Mike is known to be ... intelligent as Nancy.	a) like	b) so	c) as	d) not
6 Very unexpectedly, that appeared to be ... movie in the series.	a) the shortest	b) a shortest	c) a short	d) most shortest
7 My brother is twice older than me but he is ...	a) a lot clumsy	b) more clumsier	c) much clumsy	d) much clumsier
8 The tree in front of my house is ... tree in the neighborhood.	a) the tallest	b) a taller	c) the most tall	d) more tallest
9 The ... travellers visited a beautiful park.	a) much exciting	b) more exciting	c) very excited	d) by far excited
10 I found this assignment ... easier than the last one.	a) more	b) by far	c) a little	d) the least

2. Write ONE ODD word out of each sentence:

- 1) I worked on the least complicated homework before starting the more challenging work.
- 2) It's obvious that it's more much expensive to drive a German car than an American car.
- 3) How on Earth you don't see that this one is more bigger than that one.
- 4) Giving up smoking is the fairly easiest thing in the world. I've done it thousands of times.
- 5) Seattle has by far the most coffee shops in that part of the America.
- 6) Experimental rabbits had a 28% more significant decrease in alveolar.
- 7) Senator Hudson is the most conservative and he is not easy to persuade.
- 8) I find direct instruction to be as the most straightforward way learning new material.

3. Fill in the gaps with ONE suitable word:

- 1) Her second compilation was most exceptional of them all.
- 2) We had severe frosts. This winter was considerably than last winter.
- 3) Finishing first in the finals was the fulfilling accomplishment.
- 4) The information sounds trustworthy to be believed in.
- 5) Food in San Francisco is different food in New Orleans.
- 6) That's the most important lesson you'll learn in life.
- 7) I love that we live much approachable to the beach now.
- 8) I felt terrible, those were the comfortable couches I have ever sat on.
- 9) San Francisco and New Orleans have Mardi Gras parades.
- 10) Your pretzel may be big, but I've got the pretzel ever made.

4. Fill in the gaps with the words derived from the given in the correct grammatical form:

It's a (1-DARKEN) night. As you look up into the sky, a streak of (2-LIGHTNING) flashes across. Could it be an alien spaceship? Probably not. Perhaps, more realistically, it's a (3-SHOOT) star. Shooting stars are pieces of (4-DUSTY) and rock from space that are falling to Earth. As they(5-PASSAGE) through the gas that makes up our atmosphere they get (6-HEAT) and start to glow as they fall.